

Texas Administrative Code

Texas Administrative Code

TITLE 1

ADMINISTRATION

PART 15

TEXAS HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES COMMISSION

CHAPTER 386

DISASTER ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

SUBCHAPTER D

RECONSIDERATION AND APPEALS

Rules

§386.401

What do I do if I disagree with the grant decision?

§386.402

What happens if I miss the 60-day deadline?

§386.403

What is good cause?

§386.404

Where do I send my request for reconsideration?

§386.405

What happens when I request reconsideration of the decision?

§386.406

How long does it take to respond to my request for reconsideration?

§386.407

Do I have the right to appeal the reconsideration decision?

§386.408

How do I appeal the reconsideration decision?

§386.409

What steps does the Other Needs Assistance (ONA) staff take when I request a hearing?

§386.410

When will DHS schedule my hearing?

§386.411

Who decides my appeal?

§386.412

Will I be able to see the records DHS has regarding my claim?

§386.413

What documents must the DHS office administering Other Needs Assistance (ONA) send to the DHS Hearings Department when a disaster is declared and the ONA state administrative plan is approved?

§386.414

Do DHS attorneys across the state have access to disaster-related documents?

§386.415

How will I learn the decision on my appeal?

§386.416

What happens if I decide to withdraw my appeal?

§386.417

What DHS rules apply to my appeal?

§386.418

What records does DHS keep of my hearing?

|

|

|